National Happiness Happens Day

Founded in 1999 by the Secret Society of Happy People as "Admit You're Happy Day," Happiness Happens Day was created to recognize and express happiness. August 8 was chosen as it is the anniversary of the first membership in 1998.

For the past few years we've toasted to Happiness Happens Day with Pink Lemonade. Why pink lemonade? Not-so-secretly happy people naturally turn lemons into lemonade. Also pink is pretty. However, if you don't like lemonade or pink, any beverage in any color that makes you happy works too.
