MARCH 6 IS NATIONAL OREO COOKIE DAY!

Over 450 billion Oreo cookies have been sold worldwide since their debut. They remain the world's best-selling cookie.

- Oreo cookies were first created in a New York City bakery and sold in a tin for 30 cents per pound, says 997Now.
- It remains a mystery exactly why the cookies are named Oreos.
- They were created with British customers in mind.
- They were initially named "Oreo Biscuits." But the name changed to the "Oreo Crème Sandwich" in the 1940s and to the "Oreo Chocolate Sandwich Cookie" in the 1970s.
- The original Oreo recipe included pork fat for the creamy center.
- Oreos are the world's best-selling cookie.
- They can be found in more than 100 countries.
- It takes a total of 59 minutes to make an Oreo.
- When they first debuted, there was also a lemon meringue flavor of Oreos.
- In China, you can purchase green tea ice cream flavored Oreos.
- Women rather than men are more likely to pull their Oreos apart before eating them.
- Oreos became Kosher in December 1997.
- If all the Oreos ever manufactured were stacked, they could reach the moon and back more than five times.
- Lemon meringue Oreos were discontinued in the 1920s.
