EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION

Thank you for your interest in employment with the City of Baker City!

It is a proven fact that people tend to live longer, more productive lives when they balance their work with a variety of interests, relaxation and recreation. We are pleased to have an opportunity to introduce you to Baker City (population approximately 10,000) and Baker County, one of the most innovative, progressive rural communities in the Pacific Northwest. Nestled in the heart of the Blue Mountain and Eagle Cap Mountain ranges, Baker County offers exceptional outdoor recreation, affordable housing, schools that still focus on education, safe streets, and a family oriented community.

The City of Baker City is a great place to work! We take pride in offering professionalism and exceptional customer service to the public and our fellow employees. We currently have 62 employees in 5 departments: Administrative Services, Building, Fire, Police, and Public Works. Baker City is governed by a 7 member volunteer Council, elected to two or four year terms and a Mayor elected for a two year term. The City Manager is then appointed by the City Council.

The Baker City Police Department: The mission of the Baker City Police Department is to work in partnership with our community members, to actively promote the safety and welfare of our citizens, along with enriching their quality of life through the delivery of professional police services. The Police Department is divided into two divisions, patrol and special operations. The patrol division has two teams of officers, who work twelve hour shifts, with two patrol officers on at all times. Each team is supervised by a Patrol Sergeant, who is responsible for all operational functions of their teams. The special operations division consists of investigations, community service/code enforcement, school resource officer, property room management and canine. Special Operations is supervised by the Lieutenant, who is also responsible for supervising our patrol sergeants.
